

Trigger

Major Lazer & Khalid

Now, baby
Can't tell you why, why we
Ain't getting high no more, tried so hard
There's something I've been feeling
And we're lonely
But we never used to be
Either we're arguing or you leave
We both know something's missing
I've been holding on
Holding on to nothing
You don't care too much
And it's obvious that
You're already gone
So unleash your weapon
Aim it at my chest then
If our love is a drug
You're the one with the trigger (Oh)
Shoot me down, shoot me down
I don't wanna remember you (Yeah), yeah, yeah, yeah
Don't try to change your mind
When the blood is on your hands
Shoot me down, shoot me down
I don't wanna remember you, yeah, yeah
Shoot me down, shoot me down
You're the one with the trigger
Hey, hey, hey
Soul to soul
We used to rock so slow
I felt your blood boil and my heartbeat rush
You free me, why's it slipping?
There's no one left
Go on and hold your breath (Oh)
Say that you want me, but you don't want stress
I can't say I feel different
I've been holding on
Holding on to nothing
You don't care too much
And it's obvious that
You're already gone
So unleash your weapon (Unleash your weapon)
Aim it at my chest then (Yeah, our love)
If our love is a drug
You're the one with the trigger (Alright, ah)
Shoot me down, shoot me down
I don't wanna remember you, yeah, yeah, yeah (Wanna remember you, oh, no)
Don't try to change your mind
When the blood is on your hands

Shoot me down, shoot me down
I don't wanna remember you, yeah, yeah Shoot me down, shoot me down
You're the one with the trigger
Hey, hey, hey
